

Sponsorship

- Do you want to hear the noise of the crowd raw as the bikes start their engines?
 - Do you want to see what its like behind the scenes?
 - Do you want to Smell the fumes of a bike screaming past you at 300kph?
 - Do you want to feel the excitement of a Lemans start?
 - Do you want to see your company logo cross the line in first position?
 - Do you want to see your rider wearing your company logo on the podium?
 - Do you want to feel the rush of World Endurance racing?
- Then this is what you've been looking for.

Motorcycle Racing - is one of the most professional sports in the world with great attention to detail. Its becoming a bigger platform for companies to promote a business with greater television packages and more crowd attendance every year.

The World Endurance Championships - has a large and growing television audience. In 2006 the events were broadcast globally to over 246 million potential homes across 5 continents. With Motorcycles ever expanding on the economic charts, its never been a better time to be involved in promoting your business. Alex Cudlin - hit the World Endurance Championship scene with a mighty bang in 2006, finishing 7th in the World Endurance Championships and winning the World Endurance Rookie Of The Year Award. In 2007 Alex has been labeled as the "Kid" to watch from down under and is a big threat to the crown.

Becoming a Sponsor is very easy - There are lots of different packages to suit almost anyone's budget and desires. If you want to be there with Alex when he lift's that crown above his head in triumph,. and you want to come along for the ride, then please contact Alex for more information on this exciting prospect.